MERRILL

is a prosperous and growing City, a wonderful place to live; there is probably no City in Wisconsin where more people own their own homes.

You can justly be proud to live in the City of Parks, and The Merrill Daily Herald is also justly proud of its opportunity to help in the up-building of Merrill.

The Herald stands for Progress in this town, jealous that no backward steps be taken.

INTRODUCTION

The Directory Co. herewith presents to their patrons the 1925 edition of the Merrill City Directory. The work embodies all available and vital data concerning the civic, social, commercial and industrial interests and activities of the bustling municipality. The several features of the Directory, which have given such satisfaction to patrons in former issues, have been retained, amplified and improved, where possible, as suggested by experience. The standard attained in the previous issues is fully maintained in this one, and the Directory will fully serve the requirements of patrons and the public as have its predecessors.

The statistical review which follows this introduction is noteworthy as clearly visualizing the importance of Merrill in its civic, social, commercial and industrial aspects.

The Directory is compiled in several essential departments which are set forth in the order following:

THE MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENT, pages 13 to 26, contains information relating to city and county government, cemeteries, churches, commercial organizations, courts, hospitals, labor organizations, clubs, post office, railroads, schools, secret organizations, etc.

THE BUYERS' GUIDE occupies pages 27 to 46. This section of the Directory, printed on tinted paper, includes numerous advertisements of the leading manufacturing, business and professional interests of Merrill. They have been carefully grouped by departments and are indexed under classified headings and otherwise in various parts of the Directory. A casual perusal of these advertisements will picture many interesting phases of the city's activities. They are not display advertisements, primarily, however, but rather are reference advertising at its best. In a progressive city like Merrill the need for this kind of information readily at hand is very great, and the general appreciation of this need is evidenced by the liberal patronage the City Directory enjoys in many and varied lines of trade.

THE ALPHABETICAL LIST OF NAMES of citizens, business firms and corporations is embraced in pages 47 to 177.

THE STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE AND DIRECTORY OF HOUSEHOLDERS occupies pages 181 to 214.

THE CLASSIFIED BUSINESS DIRECTORY, pages 215 to 248, includes the names and business address of all persons, firms and corporations engaged in Merrill and the several villages mentioned, compiled alphabetically according to the business or profession engaged in.

THE VILLAGE DIRECTORIES. Directories of the Villages of Bloomville, Doering, Gleason and Irma cover pages 249 to 256.

THE RURAL ROUTE DIRECTORY, pages 257 to 290, contains the names of those residents receiving mail on rural routes out of Merrill, Gleason and Irma.

A Progressive Commercial and Industrial City in Northern Wisconsin

Merrill is the seat of justice of Lincoln county, and is an incorporated city, located on the Wisconsin river and on the C., M. & St. P. Ry., 170 miles northwest of Milwaukee. The country tributary to Merrill contains farm lands of great fertility. The city has at its doors a diversity of soil conditions which make for the greatest possible diversity of farming and at the same time the country is sufficiently new that diversity of opportunity is increased by the fact that there are still many acres in this vicinity which have never yet been under cultivation. The result is that opportunities are open for the man who is willing to pay for land already brought to a condition where it will yield immediately large profits; for the man who wishes to buy at a low price per acre and develop it, for the man who wishes to specialize with a single crop and for the man who wishes to engage in diversified farming. The lumbering interest is the largest on the Wisconsin rivers and there are numerous saw mills. The increase in population and wealth has been steady and substantial. Good taste is expressed in the architecture of the dwellings and their surroundings, in the handsome churches, in the school buildings and in every manifestation of community life. It is lighted by electricity, has an ample water supply, a modernly-equipped fire department, excellent natural drainage aided by a fine sewerage system, excellent hotels, an electric street railway, a public library costing $20,000, 2 opera houses, 3 banks, an ably-edited and progressive daily newspaper, The Merrill Daily Herald, and a weekly, The Star-Advocate. There are 14 churches and a public school system fully equal to any city of its size in the country, including a new Junior and Senior High School and fully-equipped vocational training school. Some of the industrial concerns are saw mills, sash, door and blind factories, box factory, paper mill, pulp mill, woolen mill, flour mill, tannery, brewery, iron works, excelsior, glove and mitten factory, etc. Merrill offers exceptional opportunities to the manufacturer needing wood of any kind as raw material.

POPULATION

The United States Census of 1920 credited Merrill with a population of 8,068 for the territory within the precise city limits; the Directory canvass was not restricted to the limits, but included certain suburban areas immediately adjacent whose residents are practically identical in interest with Merrill. The population of the territory included in the enumeration for this Directory is estimated to be 9,600.

---

MUNICIPAL PUBLICITY

Advertising Merrill

An important function of the Directory is to set forth the characteristics and advantages of the City as a place of residence, as a business location, as an industrial site and as an educational center. The Directory acts as a mirror, reflecting all that is noteworthy in the city in the above respects. In order to spread this information regarding the city broadcast over the country the publishers place copies of this Directory in Directory Libraries which are maintained in all the larger cities of the country, where they are readily available for reference use by the public. There they serve as perpetual advertisements of Merrill, for business men the country over realize that the City Directory represents the community as it really is.

The publishers take this opportunity of thanking the citizens for valuable assistance rendered in the way of furnishing information concerning themselves and their friends for this Directory, and also the public-spirited and progressive business and professional men for support given in the way of patronage.

TRADE! You like to patronize those concerns who are in business to stay.

It's human to expect that such business establishments always stand back of the wares they sell.

The advertising in this Directory is suggestive of the stability and permanency of the advertisers.

Frauds, fakes, get-rich-quick and other schemers have little use for directory advertising. It lives too long.

The modern City Directory is a business institution. It occupies a place peculiarly its own. It is as necessary to the progress and development of a city generally as anything naturally would be which deals with such a fundamental as the citizens themselves.

If you are not advertising your business in the Directory, may we explain how and why it will pay you?
